

Leo and the Library of Wings

4 pages · Made with Pixlit

Page 1

Leo put on his shiny glasses and stepped into the secret library where books glowed like magic lanterns. Soft, feathered owls perched on every shelf, watching him with big, kind eyes.

Page 2

When Leo opened a special blue book, colorful stars and golden feathers began to dance in the air. The room filled with the sweet sound of whispering wings and the smell of moonbeams.

Page 3

A tiny owl with golden feathers hopped onto Leo's shoulder to help him read the sparkling words. Together, they traveled through stories of high mountains and deep, enchanted forests.

Page 4

Leo learned that his imagination was the most magical gift of all. With a good book and a wise friend, he could fly anywhere in the world without ever leaving home.